NEWS RELEASE

Open a call for applications for Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship for the year 2024

The Embassy of Japan in BiH has opened a call for applications for Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship for the year 2024, for students who have a desire or interest to study in Japan. Three types of study programmes are included: postgraduate research studies (MA, PhD or without a diploma), undergraduate studies (baccalaureate) and college of technology (technological expert and/or baccalaureate). The scholarship covers tuition fees, return air tickets, and students also receive a monthly allowance.

Application documents must arrive at the Embassy by May 26, 2023, by post or direct delivery. Students who are interested in applying can find more information about the required application documents and the application process on the embassy's website (LINK: https://www.bosnia.emb-japan.go.jp/itpr_bs/MEXT_2023_en.html).

An informative briefing about the MEXT scholarship with the presence of former scholarship students will be held on April 28 and May 10. These briefings will be shared via ZOOM meeting as well. Those who wish to participate in the briefings, please visit the embassy's website where you will find a link for ZOOM registration.
